

Georgia Southern University

Digital Commons@Georgia Southern

---

Margaret Mitchell Letters to Laura Dorough
Dyar

Special Collections at Zach S. Henderson
Library (Statesboro)

---

2-6-1940

Letter to Laura Dorough Dyar from John Marsh, February 6, 1940

John Marsh

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.georgiasouthern.edu/margaretmitchell>

Part of the United States History Commons, and the Women's History Commons

---

This letter is brought to you for free and open access by the Special Collections at Zach S. Henderson Library (Statesboro) at Digital Commons@Georgia Southern. It has been accepted for inclusion in Margaret Mitchell Letters to Laura Dorough Dyar by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons@Georgia Southern. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@georgiasouthern.edu.

JOHN R. MARSH

463 Electric Building
ATLANTA, GEORGIA

February 6, 1940.

Mrs. J. A. Dyar,
Royston, Georgia.

Dear Mother Dyar:

Your letter clears up the mystery about the erroneous radio announcement about Peggy. The radio stations here had checked their own station announcements and had found nothing, but apparently they did not have any record of what was said on the Sunday School program. I appreciate that the mention of Peggy's name was probably a slip of the tongue.

Peggy came home from the hospital Saturday and she is doing fine but we hope to keep her quiet for several weeks so she can make a full recovery. She joins me in best regards to you and thanks.

Sincerely yours,

John R. Marsh
John R. Marsh

463 Electric Building
ATLANTA, GEORGIA

This is from John Marsh

Mrs. J. A. Dyar,

Royston, Ga.